ABOUT BREEZE

Hubert “Breeze” Fevrier is a Saint Lucian Cultural Icon Award recipient whose music is deeply rooted in the language, traditions and cultural identity of Saint Lucia. His work represents a form of cultural folk music built around storytelling, community, memory and the preservation of Saint Lucian expression.

Pawòl Sèwiyé brings together five remastered recordings from Breeze’s musical legacy, preserving an important part of a language and culture rarely represented in today’s global music landscape. The language heard throughout this collection is Saint Lucian Kwéyòl, a Creole language with deep historical and cultural roots, making these recordings not simply songs, but pieces of living cultural history.

Through Pawòl Sèwiyé, Breeze’s voice, stories and cultural contribution are being preserved and introduced to another generation, in Saint Lucia, throughout the Caribbean and across the diaspora.
